LINE DANCING IN THE HISTORIC MALTESE ISLANDS

With Alison Biggs & Peter Metelnick

27th October – 03rd November 2012

- Morning workshops & evening social dances
- Beautiful wooden-floored ballroom
- Optional excursion to Gozo

Malta represents a fascinating fusion of Arabian, French, Italian and British influences. Located in the sun-kissed Eastern Mediterranean close to Southern Italy and North Africa it benefits from an extremely mild climate, and lying at a cultural crossroads, it has assumed a significant military importance at several defining moments in its history. Most notably, for over 250 years it was the headquarters of the wealthy military order of the Knights of St John. Then, during the Second World War, the entire island was awarded the George Cross for its bravery in resisting an attempted invasion by the mighty Third Reich. Its capital city, Valletta, is one of the most captivatingly harmonious historic cities in the Mediterranean, featuring awe-inspiring defences and a plethora of beautiful historic buildings. Other unforgettable sights include breathtaking cliff-top views to neighbouring islands, colourful fishing villages, opulent churches, and a fascinating selection of pre-historic monuments.
